

MR. KELLY'S FRIDAY NEWSLETTER

March 1, 2024

Dear QCA Families:

Welcome to the month of March... one step closer to SPRING! God is good!

This past Wednesday, we gathered in the gym as a faith community to launch the season of Lent. We want our students to somehow understand the beauty of this season, when it is approached with intentional purpose and perseverance. My personal memories of Lent are deep-rooted and powerful. From a very early age, I can recall the seriousness with which we approached the long, dark 40 days leading up to Easter. The sacrifices (less TV, no candy, no Pepsi!) seemed daunting, if not impossible. The time frame, endless. And yet, there was always a certain amount of excitement about facing the challenge and somehow becoming a better person in the end. On one end of the spectrum, the ritual of child-like sacrifice now seems a bit meaningless. On the other hand, there was a certain gift in the experience, coming to understand that the Lent, when observed with faithfulness, ultimately draws us closer to Jesus.

We journey into the Lenten desert with hopes of better comprehending the great love of God through the life, death and resurrection of his Son, Jesus. We must experience the desert to better appreciate the rich blessings beyond. We must experience life's difficulties and obstacles in order to more freely allow God to lead us and unfold His will to us. Lent invites us to be transformed. The children easily relate to the symbolism of caterpillar to butterfly cycle, emerging into something beautiful after a period of darkness and quiet growth.

Isn't God wonderful, how He manages to transform our own frailties into something meaningful and life changing? Let's allow Him to work on us this Lent by humbly submitting to His call to follow Him, to trust Him and to be used by Him.

God bless,
Mr. Kelly
